

Though Vikram Sampat chose to be a student of engineering and finance, the subjects he still loves are history, music and culture.

His curiosity stirred at 14. Fifteen years later, he has documented 6 centuries of Mysore history and culture in a bestselling book. And, is retracing the life of India's first recorded classical musician.

As a successful Financial Analyst, Vikram cracks the future on weekdays. And builds the past over weekends.

WE ARE LOOKING FOR MORE VIKRAMS.

Be More Legends is a search for explorers, for people who believe that they weren't born to live just one life. People who pursue a passion, explore the new; places, people, interests, challenges, dreams and a new side to their personality.

If your life is as interesting as Vikram's, send us your story. If you know such explorers, nominate them.

The spirit of six best Be More Legends will be showcased in India Today. To awe you. To inspire you. And for you to vote and honour the ultimate Legend.
